Envisioning

Strong readers envision while they read. They create a story world in their mind. In readers' workshop, we have practiced noticing the way that authors write and identifying parts in the text that help us envision.

Directions:

- Read your book.
- Pay attention to what you envision.
- Choose a line in the text that creates a strong image in your mind.
- Re-write the line from the text.
- Draw the image you envisioned in the box.

The line from the text that I envisioned was...
